

Are you a dedicated, reliable, fun, & exciting person with a real heart for working with young people with learning disabilities?

Have you got experience and skills in working alongside or teaching independence skills to young people with social and learning disabilities, including autism?

If so, we want to hear from you!

We are looking for an assistant support worker to join our team on Monday evenings term-time with our 'Step Up' group – which is for 15-18 year olds with learning or social disabilities.

The sorts of things you will be working with the group to provide include basic work skills, money handling, personal hygiene, food preparation and cooking, food hygiene and safety, gardening and travelling independently.

The group, with staff team support, will be selecting skills they wish to pursue and we are an ASDAN approved centre and therefore can utilise ASDAN course modules to give a framework and rewards for learning!

Rate of pay £9.54p.h. if qualified to Level 3+ in youth work, teaching, or a relevant field, or £8.26p.h. unqualified.

Posts are subject to application form being completed and returned, shortlisting, interview, successful references, DBS check and induction training session.

Please read the full job description and complete and return an application form by February 15th if you think this may be just the job for you!
